

Privacy & Security Policy

Blossom Realty LLC is committed to protecting your privacy. This privacy policy informs you of the personal information that we collect, disclose, or use through (i) websites, products, services and software that we operate and in which we post a direct link to this privacy policy (collectively, our “Services”); and (ii) business interactions in person or by phone, email, or mail.

Please read the privacy policy below and if you have any questions, contact us at sureshgupta@blossomrealtytx.com. From time to time, we may change this privacy policy. You should check our website regularly to see any recent changes we may have made.

When you visit our website, this is how we handle the information we obtain from you through the forms that are on our website. The information we receive depends on what you do when you visit our website.

You may give us your personal-identifying information via the various forms on our website, by speaking to us in-person, or calling/texting us, or other means to do business with us. This information is kept to allow us to respond to your inquiry and assist with our transactional relationship, but is not disseminated beyond the Blossom Realty corporation.

Paper records containing sensitive personal information are protected under lock and key. Electronic records containing sensitive personal information are protected under an access name and password assigned to our employees. Additionally, sensitive personal information in electronic records, such as credit card or debit card numbers, is encrypted.

Under the GDPR, you may have the following rights:

- The right to obtain from us confirmation as to whether your personal data is being processed, and, where that is the case, to request access to the personal data.
- The right to have personal data rectified if it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- The right to ask us to erase your personal data.
- The right to request restriction of processing of your personal data.
- The right to obtain your personal data in a structured, commonly used, and machine readable form which you have provided to us, and to reuse it for your own purposes across different services.
- The right to object to processing based on legitimate interests or direct marketing.
